We'll sing in the sun-shine— We'll laugh eve-ry da-a-ay—

C . Cmaj7 . | F | G7 | C . Cmaj7 . | F . G7 . |
We'll sing in the sun-shine— then I'll be on my way—

C | F | G7 | C
I will ne-ver love you— the cost of love's too dear—

. | | F | G7 | C
But though I'll ne-ver love you— I'll stay with you one year

. Cmaj7 . | F | G7 | C |
And we can sing in the sun-shine— we'll laugh eve-ry da-a-ay—

C . Cmaj7 . | F | G7 | C . Cmaj7 . | F . G7 . |
We'll sing in the sun-shine— then I'll be on my way—

. | C | F | G7 | C
I'll sing to you each mor-ning I'll kiss you eve-ry night—

. | | F | G7 | C
But dar-ling don't cling to me— I'll soon be out of sight

. | Cmaj7 . | F | G7 | C |
But we can sing in the sun-shine— we'll laugh eve-ry da-a-ay—

C . Cmaj7 . | F | G7 | C . Cmaj7 . | F . G7 . |
We'll sing in the sun-shine— then I'll be on my way—

. | C | F | G7 | C
My dad-dy, he once told me— "Hey don't you love you an-y— man—

. | | F | G7 | C
Just take what they may give you— and give but what you can

. | Cmaj7 . | F | G7 | C |
And you can sing in the sun-shine— you'll laugh eve-ry da-a-ay—

C . Cmaj7 . | F | G7 | C . Cmaj7 . | F . G7 . |
You'll sing in the sun-shine— then be on your way—"

And when our year has end-ed and I have gone a-way—

You'll of—ten speak a—bout me— and this is what you'll say

"We sang in the sun-shine— you know we laughed eve-ry da-a-ay—

We sang in the sun-shine— then she went on her wa-a-ay—
