

Always

Irving Berlin

F F F F
 I'll be loving you, always
 C7 C7 F F
 With a love that's true, always
 F F7
 When the things you've planned
 A A
 Need a helping hand
 E7 E7 A C7
 I will understand, always, always
 F F F7 F7/ E7/ Eb7/
 Days may not be fair, always
 D D7 Gm Gm
 That's when I'll be there, always
 Bb Gm7 F D7
 Not for just an hour, not for just a day
 Gm7 C7 F
 Not for just a year, but always

(1st time through, C7 turnaround)
 (2nd time through, repeat last 2 lines)

Irving Berlin wrote this song in 1925 as a wedding gift for his new wife and presented her in 1926 with the royalties.

The intro is rarely sung:

Everything went wrong
 All the whole day long
 I'd feel so blue
 For the longest while
 I'd forget to smile
 Then I met you
 Now that my blue days have passed
 Now that I've found you at last
